Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity

OCTOBER'S THEME – "CARING FOR OUR WORLD"

* ALL SOULS' DAY MEMORIAL SERVICE *

Next Sunday 3 November 4.00pm at St Peter's

If you would like to remember a loved one who has died then please come to this quiet reflective service where you can light a candle in memory of that special person and have their name read out.

If you would like the name of someone read out please either put it in the blue Book of Remembrance, available at the back of St Peter's Church, or contact the Parish Office. If you have received an invitation letter then the name of your loved one will be already in the book.

Please invite friends who might appreciate the service using flyers available in each church. Refreshments will be served after the service.

* LIGHT BEACON ON WESTFIELD COMMON *

Thursday 31 October 6.00pm

As usually we will be bringing light into the darkness of Hallowe'en with our Light Beacon where we will be serving refreshments, having crafts and activities and a prayer tent, as well as opportunities to talk with those stopping by.

If you are able to help then please let Peter Clifford or Jonathan know.

Prayer for the Light Beacons on Hallowe'en will take place at a special service at New Life church at 6pm TODAY, 27 October. All welcome.

It's time for the Autumn Tidy Up Day. If you're able to come along any time from 9:00am to 12:30pm with your garden tools or high-level cleaning implements, we'll be able to ensure the church and grounds look their best for the festive season. A sign-up sheet to indicate numbers will be available at the back of church but you can just drop me an email to indicate if you are able to help. Many thanks

WARDEN'S WINDOW

Our holiday home last week was an Old Granary building in East Sussex. Next to it the farmer had built a large chicken run, with fox proof fences and ample shelter for the chickens, space to peck, run and scratch as they pleased, even putting themselves to bed at night. They looked content within the confines that were there to protect them. In the morning when the farmer came to feed them, they flocked around him, running to keep pace with his strides.

Oh, to be content within the parameters of the Father's love, to know His boundaries are there to protect us and He does not fail to provide for our food and shelter daily.

Jacquie
