Notes & News

Sunday 10 November

Third Sunday before Advent

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

NOVEMBER'S THEME – "FORGIVENESS"

* JONATHAN'S LICENSING AS AREA DEAN – THIS EVENING AT ST PETER'S *
Sunday 10 November - 6.30pm

It would be lovely to see many people from the whole parish joining with churches across the Deanery of Woking to celebrate Jonathan's licensing by Archdeacon Paul Davies at this service of Holy Communion.

* REVIVE SERVICE - Sunday 17 November, 4.30pm at St Mark's *

We had a wonderful, inspiring service last month with a wide range of ages attending and people said they wished it could go on longer!

If you like an informal service, with lots of contemporary worship and long to experience more of the Holy Spirit then come along next Sunday afternoon and have your spirit revived.

SAM'S SCENE – REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

My grandad, who died a few years ago at the ripe old age of 115 (we are told), was one of the over one million Africans who took up arms over the course of the Second World War. And although he loved to tell us grandkids all sorts of stories every time we went to visit him, not even once do I remember him bringing up his experience of the war. The only mention of the war was whenever he showed us his military service jacket that he had worn in the war. It's almost impossible to imagine the full horror of what he and so many had to go through in the war. But on a day like this (Remembrance Sunday) I think it's vital that we try, for only then can we appreciate all we owe to the millions here in the UK and all over the world whom we remember today

We will remember them

Sam
