Third Sunday after Trinity

* ALL SOULS' CENTENARY *

Thank you to all who helped with the Flower Festival or came to visit, it was a wonderful occasion with over 200 visitors over the weekend, including passers-by, villagers, many of whom had never been inside the church. It really helped put the church on the map and we had so many positive comments. The arrangement with the most votes was number 13 by St Mark's church!

The Centenary Service was a wonderful occasion too, with many past clergy and church members there as well as local councillors and a good number from the village.

The service was recorded and can be watched at:

www.stpeterwoking.org/centenary where you can also find a video about the making of the Living Wall of Surfinias and also photos from the flower festival. If you would like a copy of the centenary service on DVD please let Helen know in the parish office.

* JENNY'S JOTTINGS *

Last weekend, we celebrated 100 years of All Souls' Church! The church was filled with beautiful flower arrangements created by local churches, groups and individuals; and if you haven't seen the wall of Surfinias decorating the front of the church yet I definitely recommend you take a visit.

As we have been celebrating these past 100 years, looking back at the many people who have worshipped and served in Sutton Green, it's also interesting to think about where we will be in another 100 years. Maybe Georgia will be able to attend All Souls' 200th birthday! But what will it look like?

100 years ago, the people of Sutton Green invested in the future of the Church through this wonderful building. How are we investing in the future of the Church today, so that there are still people worshipping God here in Woking in 100 years' time?

Jenny

* ORGANIST/PIANIST NEEDED *

As many of you know Matthew is sadly finishing his role as our organist at the end of July. We are therefore looking for a new paid organist or pianist to join the team. There is a lot of flexibility in the role, and we are not necessarily looking for a direct replacement, so if you know of anyone who is interested please ask them to contact Jonathan at vicar@stpeterwoking.org or call 01483 762707.

* HELP FOR UKRAINE *

Beth Lemprière from St Mark's Church went to the Ukrainian border with two friends back in April. They took two vehicles of aid to a community centre for refugees, a hostel, and a refugee camp. Thank you very much to everyone who donated.

They're going back on 20 July. This time, due to the price of fuel, they are fundraising to take just one vehicle over.

They are also collecting donations:

- medical supplies,
- care packages for victims of sexual assault, and
- kit for the soldiers eg camping stoves, knee pads, disposable cutlery.

A full list of the donations that they are looking for can be found on their website along with how you can give financially: www.ukrainemission.co.uk On the website you can also print off posters to put in your window and you can read about their first trip out there. Thank you.

* ENVIRONMENT TIP OF THE MONTH – NEW *

Food and general plastic packaging come with what appears to be a bewildering array of recycling symbols. Some are quite easy to interpret and simply state "Recycle" or "Don't Recycle".

It is the symbol that consists of a broken triangle with a number 1 - 7 at its centre that have confused me the most. Except for the broken triangle with either the number 3 or 6 at its centre all other items of plastic packaging displaying the broken triangle can be recycled. A number 3 at the centre of the broken triangle indicates that the packaging material is PVC and number 6 that it is polystyrene. Both cannot easily be recycled.
